SCHOOL DISTRICT 57 (PRINCE GEORGE) APPOINTS ACTING SUPERINTENDENT

Prince George, B.C., March 10, 2023 – The Board of Education for School District 57 (Prince George) today announced it has appointed Pam Spooner, Indigenous Assistant Superintendent, as acting Superintendent of Schools. She is replacing Cindy Heitman, who has left the District.

“We would like to thank Cindy for her 28 years with School District 57, and in particular for the past two years in the Superintendent role,” says Rachael Weber, Board Chair. “We are pleased that Pam has agreed to step in as acting Superintendent as we conduct a search for a new Superintendent. We remain focused on building collaborative relationships with rights holders, partners and stakeholders and working to ensure the District is meeting the needs of students.”

In addition, Trustee Gillian Burnett announced she is stepping down from the Board. A by-election will be held at a later date to fill that position.
